Economic Impact of AKC Dog Events in Florida

The American Kennel Club (AKC) was established in 1884 to promote the study, breeding, exhibiting, and advancement of purebred dogs. We now represent more than 5,000 dog clubs nationally, including 179 clubs in the state of Florida.

The AKC sanctions thousands of dog events each year, which generate significant economic benefits to local communities in addition to the millions of dollars AKC dog owners in Florida spend annually on their dogs.

Here are the statistics for the State of Florida over the past three years:

2014: AKC licensed and sanctioned 731 events in the state of Florida, in which more than 151,300 dogs participated.

2015: AKC licensed and sanctioned 778 events in the state of Florida, in which more than 152,800 dogs participated.

2016: AKC licensed and sanctioned 861 events in the state of Florida, in which more than 162,200 dogs participated.

The AKC conducts ongoing research regarding the economic impact of AKC events in localities throughout the state, as well as of AKC registered dogs in the state. Surveys demonstrate that exhibitors at AKC conformation dog shows spend an average of $685 per show weekend. This means spending by AKC dog show exhibitors for a show weekend could inject more than $1.7 million into the local economy. And because AKC dog shows are an educational and family-friendly event, large spectator gates can generate additional revenues for cities and towns statewide.
