Economic Impact of AKC Dog Events in Massachusetts

The American Kennel Club (AKC) was established in 1884 to promote the study, breeding, exhibiting, and advancement of purebred dogs. We now represent more than 5,000 dog clubs nationally, including 112 clubs in the state of Massachusetts.

The AKC sanctions thousands of dog events each year, which generate significant economic benefits to local communities in addition to the millions of dollars AKC dog owners in Massachusetts spend annually on their dogs.

Here are the statistics for the State of Massachusetts over the past three years:

2015: AKC licensed and sanctioned 461 events in the state of Massachusetts, in which more than 67,900 dogs participated

2016: AKC licensed and sanctioned 445 events in the state of Massachusetts, in which more than 67,300 dogs participated.

2017: AKC licensed and sanctioned 450 events in the state of Massachusetts, in which more than 64,000 dogs participated.

The AKC conducts ongoing research regarding the economic impact of AKC events in localities throughout the state, as well as of AKC registered dogs in the state. Surveys demonstrate that exhibitors at AKC conformation dog shows spend an average of $685 per show weekend. This means spending by AKC dog show exhibitors for a show weekend could inject more than $1.7 million into the local economy. And because AKC dog shows are an educational and family-friendly event, large spectator gates can generate additional revenues for cities and towns statewide.
