Economic Impact of AKC Dog Events in Tennessee

The American Kennel Club (AKC) was established in 1884 to promote the study, breeding, exhibiting, and advancement of purebred dogs. We now represent more than 5,000 dog clubs nationally, including 92 clubs in the state of Tennessee.

The AKC sanctions thousands of dog events each year, which generate significant economic benefits to local communities in addition to the millions of dollars AKC dog owners in Tennessee spend annually on their dogs.

Here are the statistics for the State of Tennessee over the past three years:

2014: AKC licensed and sanctioned 319 events in the state of Tennessee, in which more than 49,700 dogs participated.

2015: AKC licensed and sanctioned 310 events in the state of Tennessee, in which more than 46,500 dogs participated.

2016: AKC licensed and sanctioned 332 events in the state of Tennessee, in which more than 48,400 dogs participated.

The AKC conducts ongoing research regarding the economic impact of AKC events in localities throughout the state, as well as of AKC registered dogs in the state. Surveys demonstrate that exhibitors at AKC conformation dog shows spend an average of $685 per show weekend. This means spending by AKC dog show exhibitors for a show weekend could inject more than $1.7 million into the local economy. And because AKC dog shows are an educational and family-friendly event, large spectator gates can generate additional revenues for cities and towns statewide.
